Can't I Just Give My Assets Away?

Many people wonder, can't I just give my assets away? The simple answer is, maybe, but only if it's done just right. The law has severe penalties for people who simply give away their assets to create Medicaid eligibility. In New Jersey, for example, every $11,200 given away during the five years prior to a Medicaid application creates a one month period of ineligibility. So even though the federal gift tax allows you to give away up to $16,000 per year without gift tax consequences, those gifts could result in a period of ineligibility for N.J. Medicaid of 2 months.
